JOBS MAY LURE Birthday Greeting G.O.P. RADICALS

Wilson Expected to Name Three Vote Pullers on New Shipping Board.

(Public Ledger Service.)

Democrats are festering fond ng gevernmental appointments to of the G. O. P. This was apparent new Shipping Board from the progressive wing of that party. Representative Thomas Heffin, of Alabama, who recently was elected to the Senate in the State primaries. ident had made a strong bid for cratic party in the appointment of Victor Murdock to the enairmanship of the Federal Trade Commission and Bainbridge Colby as Secretary

Evidence of Cordinlity.

He aiso cited the election of John Parker as governor of Louisiana. as evidence that the Democrats had a very cordial regard for progressive Republicars. Mr. Parker was supporter of President Theodore Roosevelt, but later abandoned that cause to join the Democratic party and be rewarded with the governorship of his State.

Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of ALLIES INVOKE the Navy, as the Democratic Vice Presidential candidate is generally regarded here as a move in the same direction. While Mr. Roose velt has not been affiliated with the Republican party, he is frequently classified as a "progressive Demo-

There is also a strong feeling that his name will be of no small advantage to the Democratic party

Confidence in West.

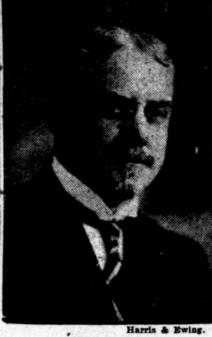

Democrats believe that the West party, who have at one time or another been prominently identified quarters they seem to believe that the strength they may obtain from Republicans more solidly together than they have been for eight years. the Nitti government and is an em- from Snow) What?-Republicans cannot see that the President's out-of-party appoint-

League Will Meet Even If Not Called by Wilson

league's general assembly, said:

league would put into effect the meeting in Rome, which provides extremists were fomenting a genthe convening of the assembly early eral strike to become effective Sat-

CUNO H. RUDOLPH.

Former District Commissioner, is receiving congratulations upon his sixtleth birthday anniversary. Mr. Rudolph was appointed commissioner by President Taft in 1910, and he retired from public office in 1913. He is president of the Second National Bank. He has been a member of many executive com mittes in charge of the ceremonies in connection with inaugurating Presidents. Mr. Rudolph takes an active part in the following organizations: Red Cross, Board of Trade, Chamber of Commerce, District Bankers' Association, and Co lumbia Historical Society. He is a member of the Chevy Chase, Columbia, Country, City, National Press, Republican and University Clubs.

WILSON POWER

The council of the league, which in woolng the former followers of of itself can take no action, but re-President Roosevelt. He is expected ports to the full assembly in which to bring considerable strength to all member nations have a vote for Democracy in the West, where final determination, meets today in President Roosevelt held sway to London under a call by the British London under a call by the British government officially to take up the final disposition of the Aland Islands, claimed by both Sweden and Finland. Preparations have been made, will be quite susceptible to favors however, for the injection of at least two other questions into the ses-rendered to it to prevent the war- witness admitted, when the tele-States should come from progres- ravaged country from going under phone conversation took place. They before the crush of the Bolshevist were John Zimmerman, the care-Republicans, however, see in the armies. A prior request of such a taker, and Mrs. Snow's sister. Miss announcement from Senator Hiram character was refused, but the Pol-Anna Hubbard.

Johnson, of California, that he will ish authorities this time have en-Called Up Harding, the Republican candidate, sympathizer as Marshal Foch and sion, had found the task allotted to the other. foreground is said to have played a prominent part in the overthrow of barrassing question that the Giolet- "The ments have drawn from their satisfactorily. At the time of the tion of Philadelphia-you will hear last crisis on the Adriatic impasse from me by telegraph.

it was announced that the allies conclusion could be reached the der was not "in his line. matter would be referred again to the supreme council. Italy now, it reach a settlement, prefers action timony. y the council and assembly of the Brun,

(Public Ledger Service.)

Revolution Near in Brunswick.

SNOW DIVORCEE TELLS OF "PLOT"

Mrs. Snow replied Mrs. Acker had embraced her and kissed her on the cheek, saying "I am the best friend you have—I have come to do you a great service—I can do more for you than any other friend you on Mrs. Snow again related "She told me," said the witness, that Mr. Snow had engaged her o kill me: kill me, at any price." Mrs. Snow, "that they were the hard-est, and coldest, people she ever came across and she would prove t to me. Then she went to the

Mrs. Snow also testified that tween Snow. Langdon and the Acker, said. according to Davis, about tween Snow also learned from Mrs. Snow also learned from Mrs. This information was not puraks Why Change of Attitude.

Asks Why Change of Attitude.

"Bonner," who was described to her could not get an inkling of its naher husband to kill her.

to tell me what she did."

Mrs. Acker was a most unconven ticnal woman, Mrs. Snow testified. and related an incident at the Bellevue Hotel in which she said Mrs. Acker had a key to the room of man guest at the hotel and entered igarettes and later went downstairs in the reception room to smok

Further, Mrs. Snow said, Mrs. Acker had a lover named "Louie" whom she expected to marry some

Her first meeting with Mrs. Acker occurred in the middle of last February, Mrs. Snow said, after the woman had introduced herself as a friend of a French friend of Mrs Snow named Mme. Hanker, wife of a member of the French High Commission at the Willard. It was there she met "Dr. Brun," the witness said. Other dinners followed at the TO UNTIE KNOTS numerous clubs and cafes, she tes-

Calls Detective "Half Gypsy."

s "half gypsy and half Bohemian." Not altogether satisfied with her new acquaintance in Mrs. Acker, Mrs. Snow said, she consulted Davis before she even went out to dinner with the woman once and always

She went to all these other dinner parties on the advice of her attorney, Mrs. Snow said, and at all times kept her eyes open for "developments," as she realized "she must not allow anything to hap-

Coming back to the expose and the telephone conversation, Mrs. Snow went into detail again. Her Poland, it is said here, will renew attorney had "planted" two other its request that some assistance be witnesses in convenient places, the would accept any settlement of the and whistled for Langdon who came volve the territorial rights of a admitted he was employed by Snow third nation and that in event no to kill her-but explained that mur-admitting its inability to well represented in Mrs. Snow's teseague to that of the Supreme Coun- the Danish Minister. Mrs. Acker in-London, July 8.-A news dispatch ness said, because he seemed to from Berlin today said a revolution know all about "legation things." the recent was brewing in Brunswick, where The witness also declared she me

Cress-Examination "Jampy."

Mrs. Snow's cross-examination by statements were "jumpy" - travel-

Judge Hardison interrupted and sked Mrs. Snow to what she attributed this change in attitude of the two people who were to kill her. "I don't know," Mrs. Snow re-"Mrs. Acker explained that it was because of her friendship with a "Mme. Hankar" that led her

Mrs. Snow described Mrs. Acker

Mrs. Acker went to the telephon distinct blow to the hopes of hope to be able to force the council and called up Snow, it was testi-Democrats. Mr. Harding's success of the league to refer the matter to fied, to prove that there really existed a plot to kill her. Davis was in rallying to the party banner all the assembly.

There have been reports here also on the small end of the receiver.

Wre Snow said, and Mrs. Acker at a source of great satisfaction to that Italy, torn by internal dissen- Mrs. Snow said, and Mrs. Acker at ti ministry has been unable to meet novocaine-we will go in the dired-dinner out at a hotel. This man had ber of the Deplimatic Corps, the witthat on the street.

Tells of Testimony Offer. Outside of the revelations of Mrs. Hoover was spasmodic and the Snow and her attorney, the biggest thrill yesterday was a statement ing back and forth over the entire spisode. Between her statements about introductions to members of the Diplomatic Corps Mrs. Snow stated, in response to questions by Hoover, that he had been present. according to what she had learned from Mrs. Acker, at conferences between Snow, Langdon and the Acker said, according to Davis, about

DIVORCEE

IS OF "PLOT"

TO MURDER HER

NUED FROM PAGE ONE.

of they had come from the circus. On the same day, Mrs. Show to the same day, Mrs. Acker introduced by Mrs. Acker on the circus. On the same day, Mrs. Acker introduced by Mrs. Acker had detective's real name was Acker. Nued bear introduced by Mrs. Acker introduced by Mrs. Acker had detective's real name was Acker. Nued bear introduced by Mrs. Acker had detective's real name was Acker. On the same day, Mrs. Show to the same day, Mrs. Acker introduced by Mrs. Acker had detective's real name was Acker. Nued bear introduced by Mrs. Acker and that the woman had not the same day, Mrs. Mrs. Show detective's real name was Acker. On the same day, Mrs. Mrs. Show detective's real name was Acker. On the same day, Mrs. Mrs. Show detective's real name was Acker. On the same day, Mrs. Acker and that the woman had not the beat intentions toward her, Mrs. Show detective's real name was Acker. It was then suggested that the beat intentions toward her, Mrs. Show detective's real name to Judge Hardison, which was done. Acker to Atlantic City and whisper the man's name to Judge Hardison, which was done. It was then suggested that the won't end here times. Davis stated, but nothing times, Davis testimony, in substance, was that Mrs. Show that Mrs. Show that Mrs. Show's Chevy Chase home with Davis appealed to Hoover not to force him to take such a step. It was then suggested that the best friend.

It was then suggested that the best friend whisper the man's name to Judge Hardison, which was done. Although this name was whispered, in Judge Hardison, which was done. They will be to force him to take such a step. It was the suggested that the done whith her to see what would develop." It was then suggested that the done what would develop. The work that the won't end here times. Davis stated, but nothing times, Davis stated, but nothing. Davis testimes, Davis testimes, Davis testimes, Davis testimes, Davis testimes, Davis there, In.

In was then suggested that the most horrible

Asks About "Holding Out." lawyer so as to get evidence on "Your question is an insult!" Hoover then asked that the witness be reprimanded. Judge Harquestion was an insult, it would

Davis denied having pursued such The attorney was still angry and which followed to prove his state

The first conference with Mrs. Snow in regard to the plot to compromise her began, Davis said about March 17. He first saw Langdon and Mrs. Acker on July 5, he said, with her remarkable tale. Says She Claimed Two Catapawa.

Langdon admitted to Davis, it was week.

Hoover also went into detail by Mrs. Snow waived her conin ights, after marriage, for $30, Mrs. Acker said she had two men obtained by fraud and coercio who would do anything she wanted them to do, Davis said, and then she named Langden and Stewart K. the attempt of Snow, made recen Brown, an employe of the Potomac to he could see his son, Electric Power Company, who lived so he could see his son, Hubard Snow, more than to have the divorce decree me

We are not compelled to reduce our prices to entice buyers as our prices are now much cheaper than many of the socalled sales which you read about.

Two-Piece All-Wool Suits to Order.

Priestley's English Mohair, Best Grade, to Order,

$35.00 Not Reduced.

Priestley's English Cloth to Order,

A Large Selection of All-Wool Business Suits and Scotch Cheviots to Order,

$47.50

English Worsteds and Blue Serges to Order,

$57.50

Our woolens were contracted for at pre-war prices. We did not take advantage of our customers by marking our prices up according to the prevailing mill prices. Our prices have always been about 50% cheaper than those charged by other first-class

This house has enjoyed the reputation of being a strictly one-price store the year around. No reduction sales, no mark-up prices in busy season, and mark-down in dull seasons to about what prices they should have sold for in busy seasons, under the guise of great reductions and money-saving sales.

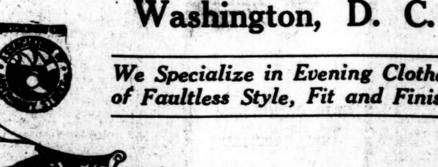

Many exclusive styles which cannot be obtained from any other tailor in America, as they are confined to the Freeny Co.

The appointment of the W. M. FREENY CO. by the Association of Army and Navy Stores, Inc., as their exclusive Washington tailors to represent them should be a sufficient guarantee to the men of Washington as to the reputation which this firm bears as

The W.M. Freeny Co. Inc.

TAILORS & DIRECT IMPORTERS OF EXCLUSIVE WOOLENS

611 14th St. N. W. Near

We Specialize in Evening Clothes of Faultless Style, Fit and Finish

New Offering OF APARTMENTS=

For Sale Under Allan E. Walker Co-Operative Plan

THE ADELPHIA

1427 Chapin Street N. W. This desirable building is of fireproof construction and was built about four years ago when materials and labor costs were low. It is nicely situated on a high terrace convenient to New Central High School, Fourteenth street car line, shops, etc.

We offer this building at a price representing about 60% of the reproduction Each apartment has an attractive sun-parlor, equivalent to a room.

Prices $3,500. to $5,300. For 2 Rooms, Sun Parlor, Kitchenette and Bath

And 3 Rooms, Sun Parlor, Kitchenette and Bath

Let Us Explain the Details Today

ALLAN E. WALKER & CO., Inc.